Mission: Reaching out with Jesus

In Religious Education this Term, Year 4 are exploring the nature and challenges of Christian mission through their study of Jesus’ instructions to the apostles in The Mission of the Twelve (Luke 9: 1-2,6).

Yesterday was Children’s Mission Day and Year 4 students came up with ways to promote mission within the school community. Their ways to reach out and help others included: encouraging others when they say “I can’t do it” and help them to believe “I will do it”; inviting others to play with us when they are lonely; and being generous to others even if they hurt us.

“When we allow God to act through us in love for others, bringing the fruits of the spirit into the world – reconciliation, forgiveness, justice, peace, harmony, joy, and love – we build God’s family and help everyone experience fullness of life.”

Students also created acrostic poems using key words such as MISSION, DISCIPLE and REACHING OUT.
